On 23 April 1951, about 60 to 70 laborers were employed at Luckau-Alteno (N 52/A 17) airfield. The landing field, consisting of sandy soil with a grass cover, was being rolled. Small portions of the adjacent fields were being included in this work. Repair work was being done on the approach road to the highway leading to Luckau. Four temporary wooden buildings, which were reconditioned, were ready for occupation. No large-scale improvement work was under way at the field. *

25X1A * [REDACTED] Comment. According to a previous report, the airfield is guarded
 25X1A by German guards. [REDACTED] reported in February 1951 that the field was to be improved. [REDACTED]
